SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2010-052534

09/02/2010

Under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA),

THE COURT FINDS that Arizona has jurisdiction. Arizona originally had jurisdiction as noted by the Minute Entry issued by the Arizona Superior Court, Pima County dated January 2, 2003, in case number D-1001 3930. The Minute Entry indicates that the matter was considered as a Petition to Modify Physical Custody; that the Court did not find adequate cause to set it for a hearing; and that the Petition was dismissed.

With regards to jurisdiction under the UCCJEA, A.R.S. §25-1031,

THE COURT FINDS that Arizona has jurisdiction and that it originally had jurisdiction and that under A.R.S. §25-1032, Arizona has exclusive continuing jurisdiction. The Court maintains jurisdiction although the minor child, Anna V. O'Brien (DOB: 09/15/1998), may have lived outside the state of Arizona for a substantial period of time between 2003 and June 2010.

THE COURT FINDS under A.R.S. §25-1034 that the Court has jurisdiction to maintain or to obtain temporary emergency jurisdiction as to the health and safety of the minor child, who has special needs.

The Court will proceed on all of the custody and parenting time issues.

THE COURT FINDS under A.R.S. §25-1221 that this Court has jurisdiction over the issue of child support in that Respondent previously resided in this State and has provided support for the minor child.

IT IS ORDERED that Respondent/Father shall pay child support to Petitioner/Mother in the amount of $250.00 per month, commencing October 1, 2010, by wage assignment all in accordance with the formal written Child Support Order signed by the Court on September 2, 2010, and entered (filed) by the Clerk on September 2, 2010.

LET THE RECORD REFLECT that an Order of Assignment is initiated electronically by Family Court Services.

Until the Order of Assignment becomes effective with an employer and monies are actually deducted from the paycheck and directed to the Support Payment Clearinghouse, it shall be the responsibility of the parent obligated to pay support to pay the Support Payment Clearinghouse directly at P.O. Box 52107, Phoenix, AZ 85072.
